AGREEMENT FOR MEETING SOUGHT

Committee of Railway Executives and U. S. Labor Board to Meet Late Today

SECRET SESSION PLANNED

General Meeting Called For Tomorrow to Avert Railroad Strike To be Public

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 25.—A committee of the railway executives and the United States labor board are to meet in secret session here late today.

The meeting is for the purpose of planning some kind of an agreement prior to the conference between carriers, brotherhood chiefs and the board called for tomorrow to avert the strike called for Sunday morning.

The board requested the executives who are attending an informal conference here to send over a committee.

The United Press was reliably informed that the labor board strived to get the brotherhoods and executives to agree on a general peace plan before the public session of tomorrow is called.

It is known that the board has been in telegraphic communication with the five brotherhood chiefs at Cleveland.

As the executives went into session the Railroad Board made an eleventh hour study of the railroad crisis and drew up final plans designed to avert the strike called by the Brotherhoods for Sunday morning.

The conference of the executives was secret and said to be just an informal discussion of the situation. Some minor union officials met here, but most of the preparation of employees for tomorrow's session was done by the brotherhood heads in Cleveland.

The strike conference tomorrow is to be held in the Coliseum Annex and will be open to the public. This hall was chosen because the offices of the Railroad Board would not accommodate the sixteen hundred railroad executives and union leaders who have been ordered to participate.

It is expected that the railroad board will request the carriers to refrain, for the present, from demanding a slash in pay of rail workers. The men it is anticipated, will be requested to rescind their Oct. 30 strike order.

The board believes the strike will be called off after the session which may last for several days. This is what the board had in mind, according to best information, when it summoned the general chairmen of the brotherhoods, whose sanction is necessary to call off the strike.

Sessions of the chairmen of the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor—whose 1,400,000 members refused to join the 400,000 members of the brotherhoods in the strike—were over today. Just a few of the American Federation of Labor leaders staged over to watch the results of the Railroad Board conference.

The Railroad Board had not received any answer to its demands that strikers on the International and Great Northern railroad of Texas return to work. The strike started on this road last Saturday as a "warning" of the Sunday strike.

Reports received here indicate that there is no serious tie up of traffic on the small carrier.

OUTLOOK IS MORE HOPEFUL

Crisis Believed Past as Irish Peace Delegates Meet Today

(By United Press)

London, Oct. 25.—Irish peace delegates today declared the crisis in negotiations was past.

British delegates said there was some improvement but that the situation was still serious.

Both agreed however as they resumed their meetings this afternoon that the outlook for peace was more hopeful.

WEEKLY DRILL TONIGHT

First Payroll For Company C Will be Signed, Capt. Brann Announces

Company C of the 151st regiment of the national guard, will hold the regular weekly drill at the armory in South Perkins street this evening. Captain Will B. Brann announced that the first payroll would be signed tonight and he is expecting a full attendance of the members of the company.

Rapid progress is being made on the remodeling of the armory for use by the company. A heating plant is being installed, and before all of the repairs and changes are made, it is expected that approximately $2,000 will have been spent in putting the building in condition for use by the guard company.

MAY GIVE HERDS TUBERCULIN TEST

Government and State Officials Extend Opportunity For Testing Rush County Cattle

WOULD LESSEN THE DISEASE

County Agent Ball Has Sent Out Letters to Farmers Asking For Their Co-operation

The Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with the State Livestock Sanitary board, offers an accredited herd plan to the farmers of Rush county, by which method the farmer can have his herd tested by competent veterinarians, for traces of tuberculosis.

County Agent D. D. Ball has received notice that the government will gladly lend assistance in testing cattle in Rush county, providing that enough of the farmers signify their intentions, and letters along this line are being mailed out to farmers of the county, requesting an answer.

The letter explains the value of tuberculin tests which the government and state officials will make, and County Agent Ball has received a supply of application blanks which when properly filled out, will be sent to the Indiana Live Stock Sanitary Board.

A portion of the letter being directed to farmers, whether dairymen or not, is as follows:

You have no doubt read in the farm press about the dairy farmer who had his herd of cows tested and one cow reacted. This cow appeared as healthy as the rest, so the farmer instead of selling her for slaughter, sold her to his hired man for wages. This hired man had seven children, five of whom contracted severe cases of tuberculosis after the family began using milk from this cow. The other two children did not drink milk and did not take the disease. A pig and a cat which were fed milk from the cow also contracted the disease.

An instance of this kind only goes to prove that a tubercular cow is a potent source of the disease in the human family, and also that healthy appearance does not always indicate that the animal is free from infection.

The tuberculin test is the most reliable method known of detecting presence of this loathful disease, and the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the State Livestock Sanitary Board offers an Accredited Herd Plan, by which the farmer can have his herd tested by competent veterinarians, and the herds which have no reactors will be accredited as tuberculosis-free.

Don't you think that we should take advantage of this plan? Think it over and if you are interested get in touch with your county agent, who will be very glad to explain the details of the plan. Whether you have only one cow or a large herd, let us know if you are interested.

FRED BEEMER IS GRANTED A PAROLE

One of Four Young Men Sentenced Here For Robbing Knecht Clothing Co., Given Freedom

HIS SECOND APPLICATION

Fred Beemer, who was sentenced by Judge Will M. Sparks in the circuit court to a term of two to four years for store breaking, has been granted a parole from the state reformatory at Jeffersonville by Governor Warren T. McCray. Beemer's case was one of several heard at the October session of the state board of pardons.

Beemer was given the reformatory sentence for robbing the Knecht clothing store here in August, 1920. Implicated with him in the robbery were Russell Shepard and Ed Beemer of Muncie and James Martin of Winchester. They were all given the same sentence in the reformatory when they pleaded guilty to charges of store breaking.

Beemer has had an application before the state pardon board twice for a parole. Martin has also applied for a parole twice but each time freedom has been denied to him. Ed Beemer and Shepard have never applied for a pardon or a parole so far as is known.

RESOLUTION TO EXPEL A MEMBER

Introduced in Congress to Remove T. L. Blanton, Democrat, For Remarks in Record

NOT MADE ORALLY IN HOUSE

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 25.—A resolution to expel Representative Thomas L. Blanton, democrat, Texas, from his seat in the house was introduced in the house today by Representative Mondell, republican floor leader.

The move to oust Blanton came as the result of remarks caused to be printed in the congressional record Saturday October 22. This language was not delivered orally on the floor of the house, Mondell stated. The remarks printed in the record dealt with the controversy between the union and non-union employees in the government printing office.

The remarks contained filthy, indecent and obscene language not worthy of a member of the house of representatives, declared Mondell. Under an agreement between Mondell and Representative Garrett, acting democratic floor leader, the resolution will be void on Thursday.

Ailing Citizens Who Suffered For "Medicinal Beer" May Now Drink

Secretary of Treasury Promulgates New Regulations and Anti-Saloon League and Drys in Congress Prepare to Knock Foaming Breakers From Thirsty Lips—Breweries Ready to Start Operations.

By JAMES T. KOLBERT

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 25.—Ailing citizens who have been suffering for "medicinal beer"—the five percent kind—must take advantage of the new regulations by drinking hard and fast.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon promulgated the new medicinal beer regulations yesterday.

Today the Anti-Saloon League and the drys in Congress prepared to knock the foaming breakers from thirsty lips. Wayne B. Wheeler of the Anti Saloon League predicted the "beer era" would last only about 15 days, being confident the anti beer bill would be passed by the Senate in that time.

Anti Saloon League leaders and the drys in the Senate were at work early today planning to prevent any widespread sale of beer.

MILROY LEADER IN ENROLLMENT

More Pupils in Anderson Township High School Than Any Other Outside of Rushville

H. S. ATTENDANCE 98.5 PERCENT

Report of Attendance Officer Reveals 392 Minutes Lost by Pupils Being Tardy

There are 515 pupils enrolled in the high schools in Rush county, outside of the city of Rushville, and they are distributed in twelve schools. Milroy having the largest attendance with 78 pupils and Gings having the least number with 14 pupils, according to the report compiled for the attendance record of the schools for the first school period of the year.

In the high schools of the county, the total percent of attendance was 98.5 which ranked 11 percent above the percentage of the entire schools in the county.

There are two schools in the county having a Junior and Senior high schools, with Arlington having 39 pupils in the Senior school and 21 in the Junior school, and the Webb school in Rushville township has 24 pupils in the Senior school and 9 in the Junior school.

Although the Gings school is the smallest with 14 pupils, Homer ranks next with 16 entered in the high school but there are two high schools in Walker township, the other one being in Manilla, which has an attendance of 58 pupils in the high school.

Homer ranked highest in attendance record for the first school period, with a percent of 99.7, and this school also ranked first in the consolidated schools, as listed in the report of County Superintendent W. E. Wagoner yesterday.

The report in the high schools of the county also includes the number of tardies, and the total number of minutes lost on account of the tardies. Four high schools went through the first period without a single tardy, these being Arlington, Webb, Center and Carthage.

Homer had one tardy, which was listed at 30 minutes. Moscow had one, listed at five minutes; New Salem with three were listed at 70 minutes; Manilla two, listed at 30 minutes; Milroy had one tardy listed at 90 minutes; Gings and Glenwood each had one tardy listed at 10 minutes, while Raleigh topped the list with 21 tardies and 147 minutes lost. The total number of tardies in the county high schools was 31, with 392 minutes lost.

COLLECTIONS ARE LAGGING

Must be Paid at Rate of $26,000 a Day if All Are Paid

Over $300,000 remains due to the fall installment of county taxes today, which discloses how the collections are lagging this season. All of the taxes on duplicate are collected, they must be paid on the average of $26,000. How far below the average the daily collections are falling is demonstrated by the fact that the total collections on Monday amounted to $8,128.48. Collections Saturday amounted to $18,522.18, which is small for the last day of the week when most farmers pay.

Collections on the fall installment up to the close of business Monday night amounted to $163,467.33 which, subtracted from the amount to be $476,000, leaves $312,532.77 to be paid between now and November 8.

GRAND OFFICERS GUESTS OF CLUB

Eugene Vatee and Elwood Barnard, Here For Knights Templar Inspection, Address Rotarians

REFERENCE TO ROOSEVELT

Rotarian Knecht Reads Paper on His Classification in Club, Discussing Men's Clothes

Two officers of the grand commandery of Indiana Knights Templar, here for the biennial inspection of Rushville commandery No. 49, this evening, were guests of the Rotary club today. Other features of the luncheon program were a short talk on the life of Theodore Roosevelt by E. B. Thomas and a paper by Jack Knecht on his classification in the club.

Eugene Vatee of Muncie, grand commander of Knights Templar in the state, breathed optimism in a short talk. He congratulated Rushville on the fact that none of the factories had closed during the period of business depression but that one of them was now running extra.

"This must be due to the ingenuity of your business men," he added, "and you are to be complimented for it."

Mr. Vatee said that 6,000 men were out of employment in Muncie at one time, but that business was improving and that they were returning to work. He found solace in the fact that saving banks deposits had more than doubled between 1915 and 1920, when they mounted to $6,500,000,000.

"This does not represent bank deposits, the checking account of business men, but the savings of working people," he continued. "Nothing can happen to a country with such resources as that. We do not need to worry because everything will be rectified in the end."

Elwood Barnard of Hancock county, who is known as the "Sorghum King" of Indiana, and inspector general of the Knights Templar grand commandery, expressed his pleasure at being present. M. S. Ball who is entertaining Mr. Barnard and Mr. Vatee, also was a guest at the meeting.

Mr. Thomas, in remembrance of the birthday of Roosevelt Thursday spoke a few words regarding the life of the "Great American," dwelling on the many sides of his remarkable character. Mr. Thomas pointed out that Roosevelt will go down in history as one of America's greatest citizens because the influence of his character was felt not only in his own country, but throughout the world.

Commenting on the prevailing tendency of men's clothes to run to sport models, Jack Knecht read a paper as follows:

Even the unpracticed eye will see quite a change in the style of men's clothing this Fall. Comfort is the feature of the new models, showing that the designs have been influenced strongly by the vogue for sport clothes. The popular sport garments, in fact, have been responsible for quite a little evolution in male attire and an idea worth considering is whether so many men Continued on Page Eight

EFFORT TO REGAIN THRONE IS FAILURE

Former Emperor Karl and His Principal Followers Under Arrest After Coup

TO BE SENT INTO EXILE

Second Failure Attributed to Failure of People to Rally to Hapsburg's Support

(By United Press)

Vienna, Oct. 25.—Former Emperor Karl's second attempt to regain his throne has ended in dismal failure and he and his principal followers are under arrest, according to advices from Budapest today.

Along with Karl and Empress Zita, Count Julius Andrássy and other leaders of the movements to restore the Hapsburg have been arrested, according to word from the Hungarian capital.

Half of the troops with which Karl set out to take Budapest have surrendered. The other half is fleeing toward Tata Tovaros near where they were defeated in fighting with government forces.

Warrants have been issued for Raskoviki, Colonel Lehar and other officers of the Monarchist army.

Admiral Horthy, regent of Hungary, announced he would surrender Karl to the British commission which probably would send him into some exile from which another attempt to regain the throne would be impossible.

Horthy in a proclamation to the troops stated that as regent, he had power to hold the reins of government until he deemed it expedient to hand them over to his sovereign. If they were handed over at this time, he said, the result would be ruin for Hungary.

With Karl and his empress prisoners, the nations of the "little entente" which threatened to march on Hungary if the former ruler were not expelled, continued to make preparations for warlike moves.

Czecho-Slovakia has served an ultimatum on Hungary demanding disarmament of the "militarists."

Karl's followers have been disarmed, but thousands of troops remain under arms in Hungary and Czecho-Slovakia, may insist that a considerable portion of these forces be disbanded. Hungary would be sure to refuse such a demand, in which event the "little entente" nations might attack that country.

Royalists throughout Hungary who only a few days ago were hanging out their flags and running into the streets to cheer Karl were reported leaving their homes and going into hiding today.

Regent Horthy, who twice within one year, has had the task of defeating an attempt to seize the throne, has issued orders for arrest of many royalist sympathizers.

Karl's second failure—the first—is attributed largely to failure of the people to rally to his support.

The regular Hungarian troops refused to come over to his side. Repeated attempts were made by Karl's leaders to get Horthy's men to desert. Continued on Page Six

MAIL LOOT PUT AT MILLION

Hays Offers $5,000 Reward For Capture of New York Bandits

(By United Press)

New York, Oct. 25.—A small army of government secret service agents today were looking for three men who held up a mail truck and secured loot to the value of one million dollars. The robbery took place on lower Broadway last night under the glare of arc lights. Postoffice officials feared such an attempt might be made and had taken precaution against it. The very boldness of the robbery apparently defeated the extra precautions taken.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Postmaster General Hays today offered a reward of $5,000 to any person bringing in dead or alive any one of the mail robbers implicated in the New York City mail holdup. Reports to the department indicated that the loss of money will not exceed $50,000.

Internal Treatment Only Way To End Piles

Even External Piles are Due to Internal Disorders.

Any external remedy treats only the results and not the cause of piles.

Miro Internal Treatment gets at the source of your trouble. It passes quickly through your stomach and lies for some time right on the diseased parts of your internal organs. By curing these organs so that they function normally, the cause of piles is removed. You feel almost immediate relief and the piles disappear.

This wonderful prescription, known as Miro Pile Remedy, is so efficient in the treatment of piles, that even chronic cases of twenty to thirty years standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days.

Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return.

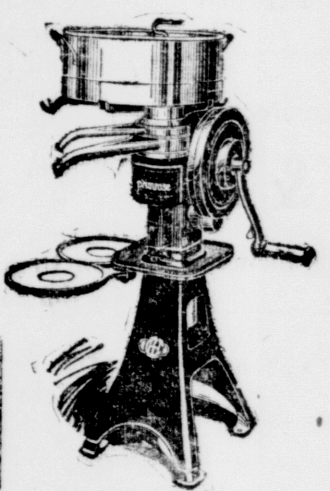

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice, and anyone who is disappointed with its use may have their money refunded.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles.

For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal treatment.

The Biggest Earner on the Farm

"Everybody who knows anything about dairying understands that if a man will take a herd of cows and attend to them, taking care of the pigs and calves, nothing can down him. It is the only sure plan on the farm because it has so many pulls from different angles. He has the skim milk for calves and pigs, and his farm keeps getting better year by year."—An Iowa Farmer.

There never was a better time to prove the truth of what this man writes than now. With the price of corn low, the way to get the most money out of it is to feed it, separate the milk and sell the cream. You can bring pigs to market weight quicker with skim milk and corn than in any way, and raise more pigs to the acre. But to get the greatest value out of skim milk, it must be fed sweet and with the animal heat still in it. The only way you can have the milk in this condition and save all the butter fat is to use a cream separator.

A Primrose Cream Separator will save all the butter fat in the finest condition. It is easy to turn, easy to wash, easy to keep in perfect running order. It oils itself from a supply in the gear case, and only an occasional replenishing of the oil is necessary. The big chore of washing out the dirty oil is done away with by the oil drain tube, which drains out the dirty oil when new oil is added.

Come in and let us show you these and many other unusually good things about the Primrose.

wasn't any legal guzzling in Indiana today—just a deep sigh from the thirsty.

When Secretary of the Treasury Mellon scribbled his name across the bottom of regulations providing for the sale of medicinal beer, the old time Hoosier barfly or those who would "take a wee nippee now and then" assumed that far-away expression.

There will be nothing to drink in Indiana but the bootleg fortune, nothing to do but sigh. The state has been legally dry by state legislation April 1917.

Chicago, Oct. 25—All that stood between Chicago and 30,000,000 gallons of real beer today was official notification to breweries that they could make delivery of their product to corner drug stores. "The demand for real beer cannot exceed the supply," Anton Laadt, manager of the Atlas Brewing Company, said in speaking of the state of preparedness Chicago found herself in when Secretary of the Treasury Mellon tilted the lid by signing regulations allowing the sale of medicinal beer.

The thirty million gallon is already ready for consumption Laadt stated. In addition to this sea of brew, vast vats of beer that has not yet been aged, are on hand in Chicago breweries.

"By the time the 30,000,000 gallons are gone" said Laadt "the new brew will be ready to sell as a tonic."

And in the meantime the well got sick and the sick got sicker.

The Illinois search and seizure law will not interfere with the sale of medicinal brew in Illinois, according to Assistant U. S. Attorney John C. Quinn. "It is customary when a state and federal law or ruling conflict for the state government to accept the ruling of the national government," he said.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 25—As the result of an announcement by Secretary Mellon allowing the disposal of beer on the prescription basis, manufacturers of that product which made "Milwaukee famous" announced here today they are ready to resume the brewing of full strength beer at once.

"We have been expecting this action of Secretary Mellon for some time" said F. M. Gabel, of the Blatz Brewing Company this morning. "If the regulations the prescribing of beer by the case, it will mean that our brewery will immediately resume the manufacture of beer for medicinal purposes. If the regulations permit only the prescribing of beer by the bottle, then it would not be worth while to resume its manufacture."

"We are all ready to begin the manufacture of real beer the day we receive formal notice from the revenue officers."

Arthur L. Kleinboehl, secretary of the Milwaukee Brewing Company, said.

"The ruling wouldn't help our business very much. Most of our sales have been to private individuals and saloon keepers. If we had to sell beer through prescriptions, I don't know just what effect that would have."

Robert Uihlein, of the Schlitz Brewing Company, said the company would not begin the manufacture of real beer until the regulations had been carefully studied.

Exit Roadside Ads

The state highway commission has demonstrated its good judgment by placing the "Ko" sign on advertising signs along highways under its control. This means that all signs along state highways, except those carrying warnings or giving directions to motorists, will be eliminated by July 1, 1922.

There never was any excuse for advertisements along roads, especially in this age of printer's ink. The modern method of reaching customers is through newspapers by means of advertisements which have a timely appeal. An advertisement on a bill board along the road gets monotonous to the frequent traveler of the road and means nothing to the intendant.

The business man who invests money in perfectly good posts that ought to be at work holding up a fence, and in nice wide boards which should be doing their share in solving the housing problem, is spending his money unwisely because the people who read the same sign every few days do not need that reminder of his business location.

They know he is in business at the same old place. What they want to know is what he has to sell them and what kind of price he has on each article. They know he is reliable or he would not have remained in business so long. They have confidence in him else they would not buy his good; hence, why erect a sign at the side of the road which suffers from the ravages of time and in a few years, weather-beaten and sadly mishapen, passes on to an untimely grave?

The action of the commission was very gratifying to M. E. Noblet, manager of the Hoosier State Auto Association, who with other officials of the motor association has long advocated the elimination of all signs except those carrying warnings or giving road directions. "I believe in the power of printer's ink," he declared. "Roadside signs are a record of dead-and-gone business firms, including some that are not defunct, of course, but the stranger can't tell which is which."

"The highway commission's action should now be followed by similar action by every county board in the state. In case of big signboards placed away back from the road, no action can well be taken, but signboards along the right of way and particularly the advertising signs at cross roads which don't give the motorist any direction information certainly should be barred. The live advertiser can best get his message across in the columns of his local paper anyway."

Under the highway commission plan direction markers and warning signs such as the Hoosier Auto Association is continually erecting to safeguard motorists, will still be permitted.

The person who talks without thinking is not always to be censured. There is a height to which some brains can not ascend.

Looking into the future would be a bally good thing if we could only select the things we would like to see.

The man who toots his own horn is always wondering how much of it the other fellow heard.

Pity the poor fellow who jingles the coins in his pockets. They are probably all that he has.

Mystic Picture Pleases Crowd

"See My Lawyer", the new Robertson-Cole super-special release starring T. Roy Barnes, won by the proverbial Irish mile in its race for popularity at the Mystic Theatre, where it opened yesterday and will be seen again today. There has never been a cleaner cut comedy-drama screened and the handiwork of Al Christie, the comedy director, stick out all over it.

The screen adaptation was made by W. Scott Darling from the original play by Max Marcin. Several years ago "See My Lawyer", appeared as a comedy in New York and T. Roy Barnes played the title role. It was one of the season's successes. Mr. Barnes is equally as funny on the screen as he was on the stage.

The story of the photoplay has to do with a young man who believes in an inventor who declares he can make artificial rubber. With millions in sight the enthusiastic young chap starts to form an artificial rubber company to put the rubber trust out of business. In the middle of his work he discovers the inventor is a faker. He's in pretty deep and has to sham insanity to escape jail. There is a barrel of fun in every foot of film.

Mr. Barnes gives an excellent performance and is surrounded by a fine cast including Grace Darmond, who plays opposite him.

Big Picture Coming to Princess

Twelve stellar players and a supporting cast of unrivalled quality—that's the record set by Cecil B. DeMille's latest Paramount masterpiece "The Affairs of Anatol" which will be shown at the Princess Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The roster reads like screendom's who's who. The phrase "all-star cast" is a much abused one but it adequately describes a cast that includes Wallace Reid, famous Paramount star; Gloria Swanson, Elliott Dexter, Bebe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayers, Theodor Kosloff, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton and Julia Faye.

Nothing like this cast in the way of aggregate talent has ever been assembled before. The drawing power of almost any of the names on the role has been sufficient to awaken the interest of the discriminating public. Here, for the first time, they are appearing in a single production under the direction of a master production—Cecil B. DeMille. "The Affairs of Anatol" was written by Jeanie Macpherson, author of many notable Cecil B. DeMille productions. Her story was suggested by Arthur Schnitzler's scintillating comedy of the same name.

IOWA SPEEDS FOR WESTERN TITLE

University is Showing Prospects of Coming Out Ahead in The Western Conference

RESULT OF FIVE YEAR EFFORT

Coach Jones Has Worked Hard on Basis That Football Team is Only as Strong as Its Line

By HERBERT B. LITTLE
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 25.—The University of Iowa football team is headed for the western conference championship because Coach Howard Jones has worked for five years on the basis that a football team is only as strong as its line.

So far this season Iowa has squashed the touted eleven of the middle west—Notre Dame and Illinois. The Indiana Catholic were defeated 14 to 7, their passing game smeared, and their line ripped. Zupke's men were outplayed from the start and eliminated from the race for western honors by a score of 14 to 2.

The Iowa team has everything that a football squad needs for success—a strong line, a star backfield, football brains, generalship and experience. The rest of their schedule is comparatively easy, and there is no reason why the team cannot romp through the rest of the season and finish at the top of the percentage column.

The Hawkeyes still have to meet Purdue, Minnesota, Indiana and Northwestern. Barring miracles, none will be able to furnish anywhere near the amount of opposition furnished by Notre Dame and Illinois.

The five years of development work put in by Coach Howard Jones since he came to Iowa have culminated in what at present appears to be an ideal football team. Jones has developed a set of forwards which has not been penetrated for sizeable gains by the strongest teams of the west.

The line is aggressive, heavy and not slow in action. It carried a terrific punch and both on defensive and offensive work held like a stone wall against the onslaught of even Johnny Mohardt, Notre Dame back, and Crangle and Peden, speedy and hard hitting Illinois ball-luggers.

The backfield is fast, dangerous at all times, and execute with precision the plays of Jones' direction. The entire team shows the result of good coaching and has proven already that it knows football and has the ability and speed to put this knowledge into practice.

With the tremendous assets of a strong powerful line a wonderful backfield and a crushing attack, the Hawkeye eleven is at present the most feared team in the western conference.

Football Gossip

Providence, R. I. Oct. 25.—Seven of Brown's best football players are on the hospital list including both ends, both tackles, a guard and two back field men. The chances against Yale Saturday are dismal.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 25.—Don Lourie and Hank Garrity, Princeton's pair of star backfield men, are both ready to play Saturday against Virginia. Coach Roper is confining his attention to the selection of two new ends for the coming "big three" games.

New York, Oct. 25.—Athletic officials of big eastern Universities say the threatened railroad strike will not interfere with the remainder of the schedule even if airplanes have to be used to transport the players.

HUGGINS' SHARE OF LAURELS "GATE"

Pilets Yankees to Pennant and Runs World Series to Eight Games. Then is Dropped

NEW LEADERS DISCUSSED

Some Say it Will be Babe Ruth and Others Predict Eddie Collins Will Take Reins

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 25.—Miller Huggins piloted the Yankees to the American League championship and ran the world series to eight games before he dropped out.

Others managers would have been given credit for a pennant even if he should have won.

But not so with the former Cincinnati star. Huggins is still being pasted about by the New York fans.

It isn't usual for a pennant winning manager to be recommended for the "gate" but that is Hug's share of the laurels.

New managers are already being talked of among the Yank following. Some say it will be Babe Ruth who has the pleasant task of signing a new contract this year. Others have it that Eddie Collins will come from the White Sox in a trade to succeed the present pilot. Still others have the dope that Roger Peckinpaugh whose wobble lost the last game of the series, is to be the new pilot.

It was even said that Hug had agreed to manage the St. Louis Cardinals late in the race last year when he was almost forced to resign by an insurrection of the players.

After the second western trip of the club had started, it was reported and it seemed quite apparent that Huggins was the manager in name only. He never appeared on the field and Ruth and Peckinpaugh did most of the directing.

PROBE KILLING BY BOY

Kosciusko County Authorities Confronted With New Murder Case

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 25—Kosciusko county authorities started an investigation today to determine whether 17-year-old Harry Long was in a fit of dementia when he killed his two younger brothers with a gas pipe.

Elam Long, the boys father, and other relatives said he had been "acting queerly" for some time and they believed he became suddenly insane.

Shortly before supper last night the three boys were playing in the barnyard. Harry suddenly grabbed a length of iron pipe and killed Kenneth, 5 years old, instantly by breaking his neck. Russell 3, years old, was the next to fall. Harry rushed at him and beat him over the head, fracturing the skull. Russell died an hour later.

The father hearing the screams rushed from the house but was too late.

After losing hundreds killed and wounded in vain efforts to break through the army opposing his advance to Budapest, Karl ordered a retreat which was hastened by rumors that a cavalry force was sweeping around behind his troops to cut them off. The retreat became a debacle with the royalists throwing away their arms and running in all directions.

"GET" RATS WHEN THEY SEEK SHELTER

Best Way to Ride Premises of Rodent is to Construct Rat-Proof Buildings, Says County Agent

SPRING TRAPS ARE ADVISED

Use Poisons Only Where There is no Danger of Infecting Human Food or Feed for Livestock

With the advent of cool weather, rats and mice, which have been out of doors most of the summer, will seek shelter in houses and barns and other buildings on the farm, to take their annual heavy toll of food and feeds. The damage from these rodents in the United States annually is estimated at $200,000,000, and Rush county contributes a fair share to this big sum.

The best way to rid the premises of rats is to construct rat-proof buildings, where new structures are erected, or where new foundations are being put in, to make them rat-proof by using concrete. This, however, is not always possible, and several methods of control for rats and mice were suggested by County Agent Ball in discussing this perplexing problem today.

Use of traps, especially traps of the spring type, is advised first, and the use of poisons only where there is no danger of infecting human food or feed for livestock. Several good rat poisons are on the market but two remedies that may be prepared at home, have been suggested by the entomology department of Purdue University. They are barium carbonate or strychnine. The barium carbonate is mixed with a dough composed of four parts of meal or flour to one part of poison or a stiff dough of 8 parts oatmeal and one of poison. Strychnine in the form of strychnine sulphate is a good rat poison when mixed with baits such as meat or cheese, or grain, such as wheat or corn, can be baited over night in a solution of strychnine prepared by dissolving 1 ounce of strychnine sulphate in a pint of boiling water. White arsenic is another good poison for bait and may be used as strychnine.

Extreme care should be taken with all these poisons, in keeping them away from small children as well as livestock, chickens, etc.

For fifty-one years millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of wear to their old, shabby waists, skirts, dresses, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything!

SUIT IS FILED TO BREAK CEMENT TRUST

Middle Western Cement Firm is Named Defendant in Action Authorized From Washington

ALLEGED COMBINE IN FIRMS

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 25.—Suit to break up a so called cement trust was filed here Monday by District Attorney Charles F. Cline, acting on instructions from Washington.

The Middle Western Cement credit and statistical bureau whose employees produce more than one-third of the Portland cement made in the United States, was sued for alleged conspiracy in constraint of trade under the Sherman anti-trust law. B. R. McFarland, head of the Portland Cement Company of New York City, and head of the bureau was named. Suits against four other cement companies in the United States will be filed also, according to announcement of government officials.

The government suit against the Middle Western bureau alleges that: 1. Cement manufacturers entered into an agreement to sell their output at fixed prices; 2. The production was curtailed so higher prices could be determined; 3. That competition was stifled. The government's brief covered the history of the Portland Cement Company since 1902 and found that since that time the manufacturers indulged in price fixing operations.

The individual companies named in the suit includes the Indiana Portland Cement Company of Indianapolis.

Myrtle Foster is Alleged to Have Fired Three Dwellings, in Which Fireman Lost His Life

50-MILE GALE IS BLOWING LEAVES ON FOUR-DAY TRIP

Communication With Tampa, Florida Cut Off at Noon Today

(By United Press)
Jacksonville, Florida, Oct. 25—A fifty mile hour gale was reported blowing at Tampa just before all wire communications were lost with that city shortly before noon today.
Street car service was interrupted as well as telephone and electric service.

The gale was reported sweeping the entire west coast and to be doing considerable damage to shipping and the coast cities. Wireless dispatches advised that three boats in the gulf were calling for help but their names were not given in the message.

Restaurant Man Could Not Eat His Own Food

"It's pretty tough for a restaurant man to have stomach trouble. My customers were always telling me I ought to eat in a good restaurant.
The fact was I couldn't eat a thing that didn't bloat me up and no medicine or doctors helped me. I tried everything recommended and at last Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I assure you I didn't have to look any further. Since taking it I have been a well man." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, in-

GRAND OFFICERS
GUESTS OF CLUB

went into sports this summer for the sport itself or just to get into comfortable clothes. While the London tailors have expressed their anxiety about the increased informality of dress standards, the American designers have gone ahead and produced clothing patterns that conform to the new tendency.

Men will find it possible this fall, to be stylishly dressed and at the same time wear comfortable clothes.
This Fall's styles show that the pendulum has swung back to comfort and helped by the unconventional tendency of the day, men are wearing dinner (or Tuxedo) coats in place of the swallow-tail, felts instead of stiff top hats, and soft collars are substituted for the starched variety. The entering wedge for more comfortable clothes has been furnished chiefly by the introduction of sport garments.
There was a time not long ago when a man would not think of wearing anything the most conservative style—the plain blue serge or the modest salt and pepper mixture.

Only the college boy was expected to appear in a suit that yelled for attention. These garments were called Rah Rah clothes and they were loud in cut and design. But everybody nowadays is wearing what appeals to the individual taste, even the women. The introduction of sport clothes made this possible.
The conservative business man keeps his blue serge for wearing to the office, but he jogs around like a two-year old at the country club in his knickerbockers and sport coat. Many men found these sport clothes so comfortable, they have taken to varying even their business attire. The same idea governs the increased use of typical summer clothing, made of beach cloths, garbardines and tropical worsteds.
Many men refused to swelter in heavy garments this Summer and put on cooler clothes.

The Fall clothing styles, therefore take into consideration the popular desire for comfort. You cannot expect men who have lolled around in knickers and easy-fitting jackets to squeeze themselves into tight clothes. The trousers are cut fuller than in previous seasons and there is more room in the shoulders of the coat. Overcoats are supplied in the boxy type, many of them having belts which can be drawn tight at the waist on cold days. While they are easy in the shoulders and body, they are warm because the air is excluded by tightening the belt at the waist.

Despite the readjustment in all business lines, I think there will be a good demand for clothing. The new styles have a greater attraction in being comfortable, and prices are more comfortable as well, at least 40 percent less than last year.

I predict good business because I think that men will realize the special importance just now of making a good appearance when everything counts for or against a man, whether he is holding a position that he desires to keep and improve, or whether he own a concern and must impress his customers.

TO SAVE DESPAIRING FROM NIAGARA FALLS

Suicides Have Become so Numerous
That Authorities Have Placed
Pike Poles at Intervals

TO ENHANCE FACILITIES

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 25—
Suicides have become so numerous here that authorities have placed pike poles and ropes at frequent intervals along the shores of the American Falls, to enhance the facilities for saving persons who throw themselves or fall into the Niagara River rapids above the Falls.

The pike poles have been painted green and white and the ropes placed in green boxes. The rescue equipment is placed in conspicuous places at intervals of 100 yards.

Life-saving implements have long been maintained at strategic points along the reservation shore, but some were carried away for souvenirs and others that remained were not displayed conspicuously.

The extra precautions for saving suicides resulted from a recent catastrophe in which a woman went to her death over the American Falls after her body had floated down the river rapids a short distance from the shore for more than 100 yards until it was carried over the brink.

Fight Over a Thin
Dime Cost $1,500

Lawrenceburgh, Ind., Oct. 25—A fight over a thin dime has cost Clark
J. Marshall $1,500.

The court awarded $500 damages to Mrs. Harry J. Adams for a punch on the chin by which Marshall made her take the count. Mrs. Adams had tried to settle a disturbance between Marshall who is 67 years old, and her husband whom Marshall said owed him ten cents. Marshall turned on Mrs. Adams.

Subsequent litigation cost the aged man $1,000, making the total cost $150,000 times the amount originally involved.

main serious. It may be several days before the exact seriousness of her injury is determined. Her body from her chest down, was badly burned, and she is suffering intense pain.
